

Multimedia Project Rubric

Name: _____

Period: _____

Unit: _____

12 pts. Project Write-up in PowerPoint

1. Self-running and moves between each page by clicking the space-bar (means saved as a PowerPoint Movie (.mov) or PowerPoint Show (.pps) w/ mouse clicks.
2. Goal-what did you seek to accomplish in this unit for 15 days? (specific and tangible)
3. Procedure- What did you do to meet your goal? (nice summary...tell which tutorials specifically)
4. Plus/Delta Chart-describe at least 1 positive and 1 negative about this unit. (clear, specific, personal, and realistic)
5. Credits- Books used, media used, Internet sites used. (well organized and complete...a Bibliography/MLA)

12 pts. Tutorial explaining an important task using this software.

1. Use OSX to save your Tutorial as a ".pdf" instead of printing.(file/print/PDF/Save as PDF)
2. Describing a "significant" process using your software.
3. Must have screen shots with labels and commentary.
4. Clear enough for a new user to understand and well organized.

36 pts. Product related to Unit (could be tutorial products)

1. Creative but appropriate.
2. Shows attention to detail and conventions.
3. Shows an increase in your knowledge of the software from where you began.
4. It works when opened. (Save in a format ANY computer w/o software can open)(DV-.mov, DA-.mp4, DP-.mov, GD-.png/.gif/.jpg, WD-.htm/.html)

40 pts. Employee Productivity Assessment

You work on task 100% of the time. You speak with others to share class related information or to offer assistance. You never disrupt the learning of others. You achieve the unit goal you set out for yourself. Your goal is challenging and contributes to the betterment of our learning environment. You are on time and don't bring food/drink into the lab. You don't listen to mp3's, cruise the Internet, or play computer games.

/100